Alexandria Museum.

THE Members of Alexandria Washington Lodge, No. 22, have for some time had in contemplation the establishment of a Museum attached to their Lodge, to be composed of the works of nature and art, and having finally adopted a plan, they are aware that in announcing the same to the public, the success of such an institution in this place may be questioned; but they have lately received, as a generous donation, such a collection of precious relics, as has emboldened them to risk the experiment. The receipts of this Museum are to be solely applied to charitable purposes. They solicit the patronage of a generous public, their brethren in general, and particularly those whose occupations often call them to distant climes, where curiosities, both natural and artificial, are easy of attainment.

It must, necessarily, take some time to bring such an institution into notice; but when we view the works of nature and art combined to attire, and exhibiting Heaven's choicest beauties, we shall feel amply paid for our labor and our care; and as idleness and intemperance, industry and economy, never root in the same soil, we can only offer a pledge, that while the former are studiously avoided, the receipts of this institution shall be faithfully applied to the relief of the wants of the latter, whom misfortune shall consign to travel the rugged paths of life.

The subscribers therefore request that any article, suitable for such an institution, may be forwarded to them at their expense, either as a donation or on deposit.

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY on the 30th June last, from the estate of Daniel McCarty, deceased, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, a Negro Man named JERRY, about thirty-five years of age, dark complexion, about six feet high, a bad countenance, and a remarkable scar across his nose, and another on his head, a little above his forehead; he had on a homespun twilled yarn and cotton round jacket and pantaloons.—There is no doubt but he will change his clothes; it is therefore thought unnecessary to describe them more particularly. It is expected that he has procured a pass, or a forged certificate of his freedom, as he went from a neighborhood where there are many free negroes who write, and from whom he might very readily obtain a copy of their pass, or certificate of freedom. It is confidently expected that he will endeavor to get to some of the northern or eastern states. He was seen a short time since in the town of Baltimore. Thirty Dollars will be given, if taken in the county, and if out of the state and secured in any jail, so that I get him again, the above reward and all reasonable charges paid, if brought home.

Richd. Stuart.

N. B. All masters of vessels and other persons, are hereby forewarned from harboring or employing the above described Negro Man, at their peril, or under the severest penalties of the law.
